

D&D World Cup Podcast 2

A. Interview with Hans

1. Hans believes Germany will probably get to -

- a) The final
- b) The semi-finals
- c) The quarter finals

2. Who did the German coach, Jurgen Klinsmann, play for in England?

- a) Chelsea c) Charlton
- b) Tottenham d) Aston Villa

3. Hans describes the young German players with THREE of the words below. Which THREE?

- a) keen c) young
- b) fast d) untested

4. Who does Hans think is the key player for the German team?

Vocabulary

'...getting behind their team...'

Supporting your team.

'sit on the fence'

Undecided / unable to choose one side

B. World Cup Quiz

Here are the five questions in this week's quiz
(Listen to the podcast to hear the answers)

1. Which team did Germany play in the opening game of the 2006 World Cup?
2. In 2002, the World Cup semi-finalists were, Germany, Brazil, Turkey, and which other team?
3. Brazil have won the World Cup the most times. Which country has one it the second most times?
4. England played Paraguay on the 10th of June. Name the other three South American teams in the 2006 World Cup.
5. Only seven countries have won the World Cup. Five have won it while hosting it. Germany and Argentina are two. Can you name two more?

C. English for Football

Damon introduced the expression, 'gutted'. This is used when you are very, very disappointed about something.

'I lost my World Cup ticket'
'No way! You must be gutted!'

D. Predictions

Listen to the podcast to see whether you agree or disagree with D&D's predictions.

Go to the comments page and write down what you think will happen.

Vocabulary

Early days

The situation may change soon. It is too early to decide / comment