Healing the Hurt, Reclaiming Your Heart

with Jennifer Hadley

I have walked an amazing healing journey with my family. I was stuck on hurts and resentments I thought I'd never get over, never resolve, never dissolve, no matter how much I prayed, meditated, read and studied. I didn't give up and I had a miraculous breakthrough. Let me show you how!

What I know with every fiber of my being is that if I can do it ANYONE can. We cannot hold onto the past and be fully available for sharing our gifts and talents with the world. Trade your complaints and grievances for peace, love and deep joy. Please join me!
