DYING TO GET IN (40 Min, 2006) —
The Award-winning documentary
by Cape Cod Filmmaker Brett Tolley

The U.S./ Mexican border, dubbed the "gauntlet of death," is infiltrated firsthand by Cape Cod documentarian Brett Tolley. This gritty examination brings the viewer along on a border crossing deep into the Arizona desert, where so many have already perished.

Get a firsthand exposure of the perilous journey from a small town in Mexico to a five-day walk through the hostile desert on the other side of the Texas border. This documentary follows the stories of men, women and children who hope to trade a life of desperation and poverty for one of hope and opportunity.
