EDUCATION

Doctoral Student, Industrial and Organizational Psychology University of Connecticut Storrs, CT
2006 - In progress

- My primary research interests are in the area of Occupational Health and Safety, specifically focusing on shiftwork as a work system design component and its relationship to worker well-being. I am also interested in the interface between work and family from a time management and perceived stress perspective.

Bachelor of Science, Psychology Eckerd College St. Petersburg, FL
1996 – 2000
