

Championing Ethics in an Unethical Time

November 7, 2009 | 9:00 a.m. – 1:00 p.m. | San Francisco

At the Picturesque Embassy Suites on San Francisco Bay
150 Anza Blvd, Burlingame, CA 94010 (near the airport) | 650-342-4600

TOPICS AND SPEAKERS:

Biomedical Ethics: Human Dignity in the Wake of Euthanasia,
In Vitro Fertilization, Embryo Research, Gene Therapy, Human Cloning, Cyborgs, and Beyond!

Jennifer Lahl

President, Center for Bioethics and Culture

Jennifer, our keynote speaker, has addressed the San Francisco Commonwealth Club, debated Hank Greely of Stanford University and has been interviewed on ABC, CBC, National Public Radio and other national newsmedia. Most recently she was invited by Members of the European Parliament to address the issue of egg trafficking at the European Parliament in Brussels. She is the founder of Every Woman First, which seeks to raise issues concerning the exploitation of women through harmful technology.

Economic Ethics: Virtuous Free Marketers in the Wake of Power-Mad Politicians, Sneaky Financiers and Envious Borrowers

David L. Bahnsen

Senior Vice President, Global Wealth Management Group, Morgan Stanley

Theological Ethics: Christian Ethics in the Wake of Hypocritical Relativists, Imperious Pharisees, Irrational Postmoderns, and Squishy Emergents

P. Andrew Sandlin

President, Center for Cultural Leadership
Preacher, Church of the King-Santa Cruz

This conference is FREE — It is underwritten by CCL supporters

Center for Cultural Leadership, P. O. Box 415, Mt. Hermon, CA 95041

For more information call 831-420-7230 or visit www.christianculture.com