Terms and conditions for acceptance of advertising

The purpose of Peak District View is to promote tourism, products and services within the Peak District and surrounding areas. Therefore:-

1. Each advertiser, by submitting an advertisement, warrants that the advertisement does not contravene any Act of Parliament, the British Code of Advertising Practice or European Union legislation.
2. It is the advertiser's responsibility to own the copyright on any photographs used.
3. Photographs can be accepted by post, but it is preferable for them to be scanned and supplied by email. Any photos sent to Peak District View will not be returned, unless supplied with a stamped addressed envelope.
4. The advertiser assigns Peak District View a licence to reproduce in part, or in whole the material supplied.
5. The advertiser is wholly responsible for the accuracy of the information published on the site.
6. Peak District View have the right to modify, or reject any particular copy or layout, or to reject any application for space on the website at any time, without assigning a reason, whether the amount due in respect of the advertisement has been paid or not. In the event of an application being rejected after payment by the advertiser, a refund will be made.
7. Peak District View reserves the right to modify the way search results are displayed on the site.
8. All advertisers are responsible for checking their advert once it is live on the website.
9. No refund will be given if an advertisement is cancelled by the advertiser after the advert is live on the website. All cancellations should be made in writing or by e-mail.
10. Peak District View will not be liable for any loss or damage, consequential or otherwise, occasioned by any error in any advertisement or failure of any advertisement to appear from any cause whatsoever. Each advertiser is liable to indemnify Peak District View against any claim made against them collectively or individually by any third party arising from the breach by the advertiser of any of these terms and conditions herein on the part of an advertiser.
11. Any data supplied by the advertisers on their booking form may be held on computer files by Peak District View
12. Whereas Peak District View endeavours to make the site available on a continuous basis, it does not warrant the site will be available 24 hours a day, or that it will be free from errors or viruses or other harmful components.
13. Peak District View reserves the right to refuse web addresses or hypertext links to other web sites from within the Peak District View website.
14. Peak District View reserves the right to remove businesses from the site should:
 - a) advertisers misrepresent their business in any way
 - b) Peak District View receive substantiated complaints from customers

No refunds will be paid should businesses be removed for reasons a) or b) above.
