Ordering Your Dress

If did not sing in the Gift of Song, Traditions, or Freedom Tours, you need to purchase a concert dress if you intend to step on that stage! The dress is inexpensive ($59), available for succeeding tours and concerts, and is waddable and washable. For those who want a more fitted line, it is easy to take in at the sides. Pam Hanold has graciously stepped forward again to assist in the ordering of the dresses. Please contact her by phone (413.863.4477) or e-mail (PJHanold@comcast.net) should you have any questions about ordering. Also, please note that the cost of the dress is tax deductible as an expense for a 501(c)(3) organization.

1. Take your measurements (bust, waist, hips) and find your size on the chart below. The company recommends you measure yourself wearing under-garments or a light t-shirt, holding the tape straight and snug, but not tight. If you fall between two sizes, and are an inch or less over, go down to the smaller of the two sizes.

Have your dress billed and mailed to your address. The customer number will get you the correct dress at our group rate with the $6 per dress surcharge waived. Please note that a shipping charge of $12 will be added.
3. Send an e-mail to Pam Hanold at pjhanold@comcast.net saying that you have ordered your dress.
4. When your dress is delivered, check it within 72-hours for defects. (Don't worry, we haven't had any problems yet. Returns are permitted only for 30 days, and only if the items are in new condition, unworn, and unaltered, with the tags still attached. Goods returned for other than manufacturing defects will be assessed a 10% restocking fee.) E-mail Pam again to confirm that you received the dress.
5. The dresses come long so that they can be properly hemmed to your height. Wear the shoes you will be singing in, and hem the skirt to 1 ½ inches from the floor. You might want to take the extra fabric from the hem and add a pocket in the side seam for Kleenex, glasses, etc.
